

LOCAL NEWS.

Gov. WALKER will arrive here this evening and address the citizens of Alexandria at Sappan Hall, at 7 o'clock to-night. Gov. Walker has always met with a hearty reception in this place and we doubt not that a large crowd will greet him to-night. R. B. Berkeley, esq., who is canvassing with the Governor will also be present and may be expected to speak.

A WOULD-BE PARRICIDE.—A colored man named Thomas Johnson, who, it is said, has been out of the Maryland penitentiary but nine months, after an incarceration therein of ten years and six months on the charge of murder, was here yesterday from the county and committed to jail by Justice Bach for further examination. The charge against him is that on Sunday night last he made a furious assault on his mother, who lives on the Washington turnpike between this city and the W. & O. R. R. bridge across that turnpike, and that when his mother, John Johnson, attempted to interfere, he seized a stool, and saying as I've got to kill you both, I'll commence with you, struck him a violent blow on the head, which felled him to the floor. Thinking he had killed his father, the would-be parricide went off, but was discovered yesterday concealed under a hayrick about a half a mile from the shanty in which his parents live. His hiding place was pointed out to the constable, who made the arrest, by Mr. Buck Cox, who, while hunting for a black bird he had shot, saw the offender's feet protruding from the base of therick.

Williams, of Culpeper, and W. H. Payne, of Fauquier, appointed assignees; of Richard Stone, of Fauquier, John S. Fowler appointed assignee; of R. H. Bashaw, of Fauquier, W. H. Payne appointed assignee; of W. T. Smith, of Fauquier, Thomas Smith, of Fauquier, appointed assignee; of H. C. Yates, of Fauquier, C. L. Pollock, of Fauquier, appointed assignee; of Simon Dealham, of Alexandria, J. S. Fowler appointed assignee; case of W. B. Price, of Alexandria, continued till Wednesday.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday's issue of the Gazette: John T. Bayne, a sailor, for disorderly conduct and drawing a knife on a shipmate, was discharged upon a promise to quit the city; William Madison, colored, for beating his wife, was dismissed as the charge was withdrawn; Jas. Dove, white, and Jennie Green and Matilda Jones, colored, for disorderly conduct at the lower end of Fairfax street, were arrested and locked up for examination. During the disturbance, which created considerable commotion, one of the colored women arrested, Matilda Jones, became highly excited, and said that she "wanted to wade knee deep in white blood."

SUICIDE OF MR. ENGLISH.—The New York News of yesterday gives the following particulars of the suicide of Mr. Edward English, a notice of which appeared in yesterday's Gazette: "Edward English, 20 years of age, threw his brains out at 9 o'clock to-day in the County Clerk's office in Paterson. In his pocket was found this note: 'Etha Ford loves me. May God love and protect her. Send my love to Alexandria, Virginia.' The deceased was employed in a shirt store in Paterson, and has been paying attention to Miss Ford for the past year. It is understood that she rejected his suit which was the cause of this terrible act. He died instantly."

BAD MORALS.—Among the numerous indictments found by the Grand Jury yesterday all manner of crimes were included, such as murder, arson, rape, receiving stolen goods, perjury, burglary and obtaining goods under false pretenses. Though this is a bad exhibit for the city's morals, all the criminals are colored people who have lately come here from the country.

CITY COUNCIL.—The first regular meeting of the City Council after the summer recess will be held to-night.

HATS.—Men's hats, in comparison with women's articles of the same name, fall to such a degree as to vanish from the view of consideration, but if such a thing as a "duck" of a man's hat were possible, it could be found now at J. Schwartz's, to Sarepta Hall. Most men imagine that the hats they have worn for some time are more becoming to them than new ones, but other people don't think so, and it is an unjustifiable fact that no man can look genteel, or even respectable to others, with a bad looking hat on his head. Mr. Schwartz understanding these things, lately went to New York and from the stocks there selected just such an assortment as would improve the personal appearance of all the male kind in Alexandria.

Seventeen blooded horses were also burned, among them Ned Hastings, an Abdallah stallion, valued at $12,000. Mr. Taggart had refused to sell either of his Abdallah stock at any price. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A Fort Sill dispatch says one of the conditions of the release of Santa and Big Tree, who were restored to their tribe on the 8th inst., was that five men of the parties raiding in Texas should be given up to take the place of the chiefs. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs gave the Comanches thirty days to comply with the demand, notifying them that if the men were not forthcoming then their annuities and rations would be stopped. The Comanches are disposed to evade complying with the condition alluding to the fact that there are no raiders in Texas, but at a council Dr. Cheever, a Comanche chief, volunteered to take his band and go forth with United States troops and assist in capturing the raiders. This was accepted and a company of cavalry ordered to accompany the Indians, who start Monday.

Diligent inquiry failed to find a single new case this morning. Physicians advise everybody not to return to this city too hastily at least not until after a more marked abatement is manifest. It cannot be considered safe until frost comes. The Masonic relief board report 56 cases on their hands, the Old Fellows about 40 and the Knights of Pythias 9 or 10.
